Notes:

Considering that residents in social housing are needy individuals, our organization will provide the following support measures:

*Note 1: Residents in Financial Difficulty: Our organization can offer a rent discount program to eligible families after approval. For details, please inquire with our staff.

*Note 2 - Accessible unit: One of the applicants (the applicant or his/her family members) must be non-temporarily indoor wheelchair-bound person. An accessible unit can accommodate two to three persons. Documentary proofs shall be submitted at the vetting interview. If no individual/family with wheelchair-bound person is selected in the first round of application, the unit will accept open application as a 4-person unit.

*Note 3 - Households must pay part of the stamp duty and cover their own water, electricity, and internet costs.

*Note 4 - The above rents apply during the lease term for Category A and B households, and for Category C households during the first 12 months. For Category C households, from the 13th to the 18th month, the rent will increase to 1.5 times the above rental rates; from the 19th to 24th month, the rent will be 2 times the above rental rates.

Tenancy Period: Category A and B: 2 years / Category C: 1 year (subject to the tenancy agreement)

C. Basic Facilities and Fittings

1. Modular integration construction method is adopted in the construction of Social Housing Projects. The building consists of 4 stories (no lifts).
2. Each unit provides individual toilet, cooking area, water heater, ventilating fan, windows with grilles, hanging rail, shower head, drain pipe for washing machine and sockets.
3. Various communal facilities are equipped in the project, such as communal room, mailbox and recycle stations. Some Projects also have laundry rooms for households' daily use.

D. Application Period

Applications are currently being accepted until all units are occupied.

F. Application Fee

Application is free of charge.

G. Application and Vetting Procedures

◆ Submission of Application

1. Interested applicants should read the eligibility criteria and application procedures in this “Application Guide” carefully to understand the details of application qualifications, process and approval criteria.
2. Please submit your application on “TH-E” – Central and Unified Platform for Transitional Housing via the Housing Bureau website, complete the application submission for transitional housing by just following the instructions to input the required basic information (e.g. name, phone number, identity card number, etc.) and choose the projects of your preference. Details:

<https://www.hb.gov.hk/eng/policy/housing/policy/transitional/tenantapplications.html>

3. Upon receiving the application, CFSC will contact the applicant for interview. The applicant must provide complete and accurate information along with copies of supporting documents. If the applicant fails to provide the required information or documents, their application will not be processed.

◆ Vetting Interview Procedures

1. Eligible applicants will be invited to attend the vetting interviews for verification of documents and vetting of application.
2. Applicants and his / her family members are required to submit the original supporting documents in the list of "Supporting Documents Checklist" on interview day. All the family members aged 18 years or above are required to attend the interview.
3. CFSC will conduct home visits to some applicants for further assessment.
4. If the applicant refuses or fails to submit documents on time or absent from the interview or refuses to have home visits, the application may be delayed or terminated.
5. Vetting Criteria: Applicant must meet the eligibility criteria, complete and pass the vetting procedures, and comply with the terms and conditions set out in the Tenancy Agreement and the House Rules. Whether an applicant has a chance to be allocated a unit depends on the condition of the unit available for allocation at that moment, family needs, family size, PRH application criteria (including number of year applied) and the scores of the vetting interview procedures. In case of any dispute, the decision of CFSC shall be final. (If the applicant has a need to live on ground floor due to physical condition, please provide medical certificate issued by Hospital Authority during interview for the purpose of approval.)

◆ Announcement of Result

1. Successful and qualified applicants will be notified of the application result within one months after the vetting interview.

H. Unit Allocation by Lots-drawing

1. According to the unit type applied, each successful applicant will have one chance of lots drawing to determine the unit to be allocated (Arrangement of lots-drawing will be notified successful applicants individually). If the applicant gives up this opportunity, the application will be deemed as cancelled.
2. Successful applicants will receive a formal notification after unit allocation (Applicant and family members aged 18 years old or above must attend the intake orientation briefing.) Please follow the instructions to pay deposit and rent (and other fees) for one month each within the specific period and go to CFSC's office to sign the Tenancy Agreement in person for completion of moving-in procedures. Otherwise, the unit allocation will be forfeited.
3. If the following situations occur, the applicant must vacate and restore the unit and return to CFSC. If applicant wants to terminate the tenancy agreement early, applicant must inform CFSC in written notice before at least one-month notice. CFSC would consider whether to accept the application depending on case by case condition.

- (i) End of tenancy agreement
- (ii) The project is officially ended
- (iii) Applicant is allocated a public housing unit and accepts the allocation during the period of residence

I. Important Notes
